

HUNTED QUAIL TOGETHER

ON THEIR WEDDING DAY

Novel Honeymoon of Mr. and Mrs. Addison Elston of Jefferson City.

—

Addison Elston and bride of Jefferson City are at the Lincoln Hotel, ending a honeymoon that began last week with a quail hunt in Cole County.

Mrs. Elston, who was Miss Sophia Rock hold, is not only well known in society, but is credited with being the best woman wine shot, as well as the most expert clay-pigeon breaker in Central Missouri.

Instead of packing up a big trunk with finery for a wedding journey, she put on a simple hunting costume on the day of her wedding and hunted the quail in and about Elston Station for quail.

A year ago young Elston met Miss Rock hold. They took a fancy to the looker, and it was her skill with the gun and her fondness for outdoor sports that first attracted his admiration. The wedding party was attended with more crosses than the average hunter can break. While Mr. Elston did not let a dove his bride brought down eight quail. She has broken ten clay pigeons straight and declared yes-shotgun and an opportunity to use it.

"I think it is great sport," said she yesterday. "From the time I first used a shotgun I have enjoyed it thoroughly. Mr. Elston and I have frequently gone hunting together. I don't know whether it is dangerous, but sometimes my aim is better than Mr. Elston's. No, I have never shot larger game than squirrel or rabbits, but I hope some day to kill a deer. Clay-pigeon shooting is a great sport, and I shoot from any angle. Of course, Mr. Elston has taught me how to use a shotgun, and now I like it about as well as he does."

MRS. ADDISON ELSTON.
Of Jefferson City, who was Miss Sophronia Rockhold.

Mr. and Mrs. Elston did some shopping yesterday. They will probably return to Jefferson City to-day.

BROTHER AND SISTER ARE MARRIED ON THE SAME DAY

MISS ANE

A black and white illustration. On the left, a sailboat is shown from the side, with its sails partially visible. On the right, a woman's face is shown in profile, looking towards the left. She has dark, wavy hair and is wearing a headband or tiara. The illustration is framed by a decorative border.

MISS SARA RANDALL

EAST ST. LOUIS BRIDES OF YESTERDAY.

REPUBLICAN SPECIAL.
New York, Nov. 30.—Bernhardt and Coquelin—the one actress, who, after an apothecosis in Paris four years ago, which, with another less gifted, might have proved a fatal accident—struggled to get to work in the infinite variety of her talent, and the comedian who holds a unique place in the annals of the French dramatic art as past master of the classic, the emotional and the coming style—Coquelin and Bernhardt.

Have this morning.

Both confessed to experiences during a storm on the coast. Herzhart had apparently chosen "Father Time" even since she was last, and Couquell had been told that the storm was his worst by braving the storms that blew.

Both were unfeignedly glad to tread solid ground once more. As Couquell so'd, she said, "I am a little bit of a divinity, but, in one respect, all too human. Sarah across an ocean she alominate."

Herzhart's triumph. Hers is the secret of perennial youth. Weak and fatigued by the voyage, she is ready to give up the highway and follow the pier-asking figure of the old man of Persian line, says one authority; but she says dark night, perhaps less reliable.

LESTER ILL IN LONDON.
Says He Left Chicago to Escape Family Unpleasantness.

SPECIAL BY CABLE.
London, Nov. 29.—C. H. Lester of Chicago, who came to London a week ago because of domestic troubles, is all at the Ritz. He arrived without any baggage and with only the clothing in which he was dressed. Mr. Lester said:

"I am en route to Germany for my health; I left Chicago suddenly in order to escape family troubles. I am not making any charges to the effect that I am a spendthrift and that I once attempted to shoot my wife."

COOK AND SEIBERT CONFER.
Next Secretary of State Says His Visit Is Not Important.

Sam R. Cook, Secretary of State, left yesterday from his home at Mexico. Mr. Cook had a conference with Mr. Seibert last night at the Planters Hotel. He declared his visit had no special purpose. Mr. Seibert will visit Jefferson City about the middle of next month. He probably make his home there during his term.

James T. Bradshaw of Chillicothe is the Lafeolee. Mr. Bradshaw may be a carpenter and a son of the House of Representatives. He has been in the city

LETTER'S CHARGE CAREER.
REPUBLICAN SPECIAL.
St. Joseph, Mo., Nov. 22.—C. H. Lester is the son of John T. Lester, a prominent Board of Trade operator, who died a few years ago. Lester was recently taken to court to avoid proceedings for separate maintenance brought by his wife, who was charged with adultery. Lester, in his bill of complaint, alleged that his wife had been guilty of adultery with the excessive use of liquor. The Lester family is well known in the city.

Snow Will Benefit Wheat.
REPUBLICAN SPECIAL.
St. Joseph, Mo., Nov. 22.—The first snow storm in the Northwest has been reported. The precipitation amounted to three inches. The weather messages received today say the storm has been over the west Missouri, Eastern Kansas and Nebraska.

The candidates, so far as announced, are John H. Kahoka and Lon Luther of Lamont.

of great benefit to the winter wheat,

BROTHER AND SISTER ARE MARRIED ON THE SAME DAY

EAST ST. LOUIS BRIDES OF YESTERDAY.

Miss Sarah Randall and Oswald Boll- which began with a big bridal supper on mann were married last night at Miss Randall's home, on the County Farm road, near Belleville, Ill. A few hours previously, the bride's brother, Edward Randall, and Miss Jane Sutton of No. 217 North Spring avenue, Belleville, were married at the home

In the evening a double wedding celebration was held at the home of the Randalls. Friends and relatives of the couples for miles around attended the celebration.

BERNHARDT AND LOQUELIN HAVE ARRIVED IN NEW YORK

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.
New York, Nov. 20.—Bernhardt and Coquelin—the one actress, who, after an apoplexy in Paris four years ago, which, with another less gifted, might have proved a funeral oration, straightway set to work in comedian who holds a unique place in the splendid history of French dramatic art as past master of the classic, the emotional and the coming style—Coquelin and Bernhardt arrived on the French liner Aquitaine from Havre this morning.
A little difficulty about the carriage which was to take her from the pier to the hotel and Sarah forgot fatigue, weakness and everything in the whole-heartedness with which she took up the subject of the moment.

Both were unfortunately killed in the same accident. Mme. Bernhardt had apparently cheated "Father Time" ever since she was here last, and Coquelin had gained a ruddier complexion than is his wont by braving the storms that blew.

The ever divine Sarah wore a woman's triumph. Hers is the secret of perennial youth. Weak and fatigued by the voyage, she was assisted down the gangway and

One subject Mme. Bernhard refused to discuss, beyond saying that the new play which M. Rostand is writing for her, is to be called "Le Theater," Anglaise "The Stage." M. Coquelin is likewise to mentingly discreet.

LESTER KILLIN LONDON.
Says He Left Chicago to Escape
Family Unpleasantness.
SPECIAL BY CABLE.

London, Nov. 29.—Chas. Lester of Chicago, who came to London a week ago because of domestic trouble, is ill at the Hotel Cecil. He arrived without any baggage and with only the clothing in which he was dressed. Mr. Lester said to-day:

"I am en route to Germany for my health. I left Chicago suddenly in order to escape Mr. Cook held a conference with Mr. Seibert last night at the Planters Hotel. He declared his visit had no special purpose."

Mr. Cook will remove to Jefferson City about the middle of next month, and will probably make his home there during his term of office.

James T. Bradshaw of Chicago

charges to the effect that I am a spend-thrift and that I once attempted to shoot her will be properly answered at the right time. I have no desire to try the case in the newspapers. It seems to me that such difficulties should be left to those immediately concerned.

LESTER'S CHICAGO CAREER

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.
Chicago, Nov. 20.—C. H. Lester is the son of John T. Lester, a prominent Board of Trade operator, who died a few years ago. He was reported recently to have left Chicago to avoid proceedings for separate maintenance brought by his wife, who was Mrs. Taylor, widow of a city fireman. Mrs.

leader, in order on or complaint, alleged that her husband was a spendthrift and addicted to the excessive use of liquor. The Lester home was on Lake avenue.

_____